BEFORE THE DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE OF
THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
OF THE STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Application of
SHELBY K. ANDERSON to Act as a Sales
Agent

ORDER ON APPLICATION FOR REINSTATEMENT

Case No. RE-10-50787

---

On July 3, 2010, Shelby K. Anderson (Applicant) submitted to the Utah Real Estate Commission (Commission) and the Division of Real Estate (Division) an application to reinstate her license to practice as a sales agent. The application was reviewed in an informal proceeding to determine whether Applicant meets the licensing requirements of Utah Code Ann. § 61-2f-203(1) (2010). The presiding officer, on behalf of the Division and pursuant to a grant of authority from the Commission, now makes the following analysis and order.

REASONS FOR DECISION

On August 1, 2009, Applicant was charged in case number 091301307 as follows:

1. One count of assault, a class B misdemeanor.
2. Four counts of domestic violence in the presence of a child, all counts class B misdemeanors.
3. One count of disorderly conduct after request to stop, a class C misdemeanor.
4. One count of intoxication, a class C misdemeanor.

On August 12, 2009, Applicant entered into a plea in abeyance agreement as to all seven charges. She was placed on probation for one year, fined $600, and ordered to undergo evaluation through Valley Mental Health and to complete treatment as recommended. A July 6, 2010 update from Valley Mental Health indicates that Applicant has completed four sessions of a domestic violence course and is enrolled in three other courses.

Utah Code Ann. § 61-2f-301 (2010) requires real estate licensees to report a criminal plea in abeyance to the Division within ten business days. Applicant failed to do so.

Utah Code Ann. § 61-2f-203(1) (2010) requires that the Division and Commission determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of honesty, integrity, truthfulness, reputation, and competency. Utah Admin. Code § R162-2-2.11 requires the Division and the Commission to consider an applicant's criminal history in making this determination.

Applicant's criminal history during the past term of licensure demonstrates a lack of respect for the law, which reflects negatively on her integrity and reputation. Applicant's failure to report her plea in abeyance to the Division within the time mandated by statute reflects negatively on her honesty and competency. Therefore, Applicant does not meet the requirements of Section 61-2f-203(1) (2010) for unrestricted licensure.

The presiding officer notes that Applicant honestly disclosed these charges in her application for reinstatement, and that she appears to be compliant with treatment and on track to resolve the case according to the plea in abeyance agreement. Therefore, the presiding officer finds that issuing a probationary license is justified.

ORDER

Based on the above analysis, Shelby K. Anderson's application for licensure as a sales agent is granted with restriction. The license is placed on probation for the renewal period.

During the probationary period, Ms. Anderson shall comply with all laws and with the rules regulating her profession, including all reporting requirements, and shall conduct herself in a way that demonstrates her qualification and fitness for continuing licensure as a real estate professional.

This order shall be effective on the signature date below.

DATED this 20 day of July, 2010.

UTAH DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE

Jennie T. Jonsson, Presiding Officer
Division of Real Estate
