DIVISION REPORTS
DIRECTOR’S REPORT – Jonathan Stewart
Director Stewart gave the Commission an update on legislation. The Division’s bill, HB191, received a favorable recommendation last week in the House Labor and Business Committee, and will now go to the House floor soon.

Another bill that might be of interest is SB42, which is the limitation on action to recover the deficiency on a short sale. This is sponsored by Senator Neiderhauser, and would make it so that an action to recover a deficiency is barred unless it is commenced no more than three months after the date of the recording of a release of mortgage or reconveyance of trust deed with respect to a secured property and results in a short sale of a property. So this will bring a short sale in line with what a foreclosure is now. This bill has passed all through the Senate and House Standards Committee.

Our Public Service Announcements (PSAs) have been running for a few weeks. They are also posted on the Division’s website.

The Division is still preparing for our remodel which is less than a month away. Director Stewart wanted to remind everyone that from March 8 through March 16, 2012, we will be under construction. We ask for everyone to be patient with us, because the staff will be split in two different rooms, on two different floors. While we will still have access to telephones and computers, the staff might not be as efficient as we are now.

ENFORCEMENT REPORT – Kent Nelson
Mr. Nelson said last month we had a large number of cases that came into the Division. In the month of January the Division received 47 complaints; opened 39 cases; closed 42 cases; leaving a balance of open real estate cases at 219. We still closed more than we opened, so the number is still dropping. Our investigators are making a determined effort to address any cases that are older, so you will see more progress as we go along updating the case loads.

Enforcement is currently working in our real estate field on a major criminal case that we started on a mortgage foreclosure flipping operation that has been going on for a number of years involving a large number of agents. It may take a while because we are subpoenaing a large number of bank records, but at some point it will result in a large indictment against quite a few licensees and companies who are taking advantage of people in foreclosure situations. We will continue to keep the Commission updated on this issue.

Each of the respondents was offered the opportunity to appear today, but each has declined.
Mr. Fagergren said from December 2011 to January 2012, 301 real estate licensees have let their licenses expire. There is still a downward trend, and hopefully it will come to an end. Of the 301 licenses that expired, 165 were active licenses and 136 were inactive licenses.

Commissioner Walker said that on a national average, there is one agent for every 200 people, and in Utah it is one agent for every 194 people. Commissioner Ashton asked if the related industries of mortgage and appraising have numbers that are dropping as well. Mr. Fagergren said in mortgage licensees are in their reinstatement period now and the numbers dropped dramatically last year, and are continuing to drop—but at a slower rate—than last year. The appraisers have maintained the same numbers for a long time, but we are now seeing their numbers drop. Some of the reasons are the ages of the appraisers, and their overall disheartened feelings about their profession. Mr. Fagergren said that he doesn’t see a lot of residential appraisers that come up and say they are having a great year. Commercial appraisers seem to be doing well.

Vice Chair Houston asked where these statistics fit in the overall multiple-year picture of numbers of licensees. Mr. Fagergren said that he will do some checking and have those numbers for the next meeting.

Last month, Ms. Wall filled in for Mr. Fagergren, and talked about the Division’s upcoming Caravan. Other than one location that we are still trying to be certain of, the locations and dates will be as follows:

In the past, we’ve used a bigger facility in Layton, and sometimes it is harder for people to see on a big screen. We got a smaller venue this time and we will be holding the meeting twice.

All of this information will be published in the next Division’s newsletter, and also on our website. The Caravan will have a similar reservation system as last year. If someone reserves a seat but fails to attend without canceling at least three days before the meeting, there will be a $10.00 no-show fee.

COMMISSION AND INDUSTRY ISSUES

Discussion of Proposed Rules – Jennie Jonsson

The Commission and Division called, and spoke with, Mr. Crowe at 9:30 a.m. until 9:38 a.m. The Commission will meet later today in an Executive Session and make a decision on Mr. Crowe’s license.

Ms. Jonsson handed out a draft copy of the rules that have been discussed for the past couple of months. The draft covers trust account records for both real estate and property management trust accounts; qualification for licensure; registration of entities for both real estate and property management, and record requirements, etc.

A brief discussion regarding trust accounts and title companies was held.

There were a few minor suggestions and changes to the draft rule. Ms. Jonsson will make these changes and present it to the Commission for a vote in the next meeting.

A brief break was taken before the next hearing.
